Advertise your local business to local people

The io-io.co website is an on-line community space to keep things local. It's designed to advertise "all" that is local.

io-io.co works to a "keep it local keep it open" philosophy with "Fair Play" at its core - advertising local independent businesses only - at an affordable rate.

You are in total control of your entry and you can change it as many times as you like at no additional cost 24/7/365 days a year and the changes take effect instantly.

There will be NO Nationals or larger chain or franchise outlets on io-io.co to compete with your entry.
io-io is for independent outlets only.

With Community groups, Music, and Entertainment sections included to attract local people to the website, so they can see what local businesses, services and activities are available in their locality.

You are in full control of your entry.

You only have to fill in a form and it translates into a mini webpage with all the details necessary to find and make contact with you, for work or to purchase goods.
